To Pamie N. Davis

It is with sincere regret that we accept the resignation of Pamie N. Davis, General Manager of Davis Brothers Lumber Company.

We pay tribute to him for the sixty-two years of continuous service he has given to the lumber business. During this time he has seen the industry develop from a tiny struggling business into a successful enterprise. His life story could have happened only in a land where merit is recognized. Like the story of many successful business men, he began at the bottom, serving in many capacities, until he became General Manager of a Company recognized as a leader in the manufacture of lumber.

During his long years of service he has seen lean hard years, years of plenty, war years, depression years, a disastrous fire, a year of rebuilding from ashes, to the final operation of a modern new plant.

Today we come not only to pay tribute, but to express our deep appreciation for the life-time of service. We pay honor to him for faithful loyal service, for devotion to duty, for the giving of himself in the building of a business. Our wish is for years of prosperity, health, and happiness.
